Registration

Public training course registration can be made using our online booking form or by phoning the training department on 01746 766246. Public training registration requests can also be made by email to training@edgewords.co.uk

Public training courses have minimum attendance numbers required, resulting in cancellation of the course if the numbers are not met. Places are subject to availability.

Payment Policy

Registration can only be confirmed once payment has been guaranteed by company purchase order or paid by cheque in advance.

Cancellation Policy

Edgewords reserves the right to cancel scheduled courses due to unforeseen circumstances, giving at least one week's notice to attendees where possible.

A full refund is given for any cancellation received more than one week before the course starts. Payment in full must be made for cancellations received later than this. Substitutions are allowed at any time.
